University of Delaware Journalism Program
Application for internship credit & possible stipend

Submit this two-page form to journalism@udel.edu before the Monday of the last week of the semester. Or, you can submit the form by mail (Journalism Program, Department of English, University of Delaware, Newark, Del. 19716) or fax (302-831-1586).

To be filled out by student:

Name: ____________________________________________
Major/minors: _________________________________________

Academic term in which internship will be taken: _________________________________

Journalism classes completed, with their professors:

Journalism experience, if any (e.g., positions at The Review, WVUD, STN; other internships/jobs; freelance):

If you’re requesting a stipend:

Which stipend are you applying for? ________________________________________________

For what expenses do you need a stipend?

How much of a stipend are you requesting? __________________________________________
To be filled out by supervisor:

Your name: ____________________________________________________________

Company or organization: ______________________________________________

Supervisor’s email address: ____________________________________________

Phone number: ______________________________________________________

Beginning & ending dates of internship: _________________________________

Approximate hours per week: __________________________________________

Please briefly describe the intern’s duties: